RELATION OF THE CHURCH TO THE TEMPERANCE REFORM.—We have been requested to publish the following abstract of a sermon preached at the First Baptist Church last Sabbath, by the Pastor, Rev. C. E. Burrows. After an introduction, he remarks, what can be done to suppress the evil of intemperance, and in reply presents the following proposition:

I. Christians must themselves set an example of sobriety and temperance. Every person that comes into the church comes in a temperance man. No other can be admitted. This is one of the signs of discipleship. It is one of the graces of the spirit. Among the works of the flesh are named: murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like; while the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, meekness, temperance. It is well to remember that the Christian's temperance is much more comprehensive than our modern use of the word signifies. Notice the text that temperance has a place among the Christian graces. Notice also its relative position in the list. It is not the first but comes among the higher Christian attainments. Add to faith, virtue, and to wisdom, knowledge; and to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godliness.

II. Christians are to seek to raise others to the same high standard of temperance. This is embraced in their commission. They are to seek to lead men from the sensual into the spiritual, to wean them from self-indulgence, and to impart the power of self-control.

III. Christians are to seek to remove whatever special temptation besets the footsteps of their fellow-men. The disciples of Christ are both to recognize the high ideal towards which they are to reach, and to which they are to strive to lead others; and also, to become familiar with the hindrances in the way, and with the temptations which overcome and destroy such multitudes.

And we cannot begin our inquiries in this direction without being impressed with their number and seductive power. Their name seems to be legion. Every city, and village, and country town, even, teems with them. Posing by others, equally enticing, and equally destructive, we shall content ourselves briefly to one of these snares of the devil.

Those most interested, and who have made the subject one of special thought, are convinced that the evil of intemperance is faithfully on the increase in our city and state; that young men are being reduced into the dens where the poison is dealt out, and that the sad effects are to be witnessed daily on our streets.

And here is a work to engage Christians, heart and hand. This is evident, if it were needed to prove it, from the sobriety which is enjoined upon themselves and which they love to practice: from the numerous and emphatic denunciations of Scripture, concerning strong drink; and from the evil which entail themselves upon the victims of the habit, and upon their families. How few, very few who have been addicted to these sensual and debasing pleasures, have ever admitted into the fellowship of our churches!

The question returns, What shall be done to remove the temptations, and diminish the crime of which we are speaking?

1. There should be a strong public sentiment created against the sin. There can be no doubt but the influence of the law has been most prosperous, when it has been backed up by a respectable, if it should be branded as respectable by every lover of home and family.

2. An appeal may be made to the law. In this country the people are the law-makers. It is for them to say whether an evil shall be restrained by law, or whether by statute it shall cease altogether. There is but one objection to a prohibitory law. It is that the conscience of the people will not warrant it. It is a truth which none will deny that it is better to have no law, than to have one that is constantly and with impunity broken. Such a state of things cultivates in men a disregard and contempt for law which should never be allowed. Every means should be employed to impress upon the popular mind a sense of the authority and the majesty of law. And when a law has been enacted, it should be rigidly and conscientiously enforced by the proper executive officers.

But may we not assume that the public conscience is educated up to this point? We answer in the affirmative. We would better have the law and educate the conscience up to it, if it could, and keep it toned up.

Recently the states of Massachusetts and New York enacted stringent laws upon the subject. In both with happiest results. "It is said that 2000 liquor shops will be closed in N. Y. city on the first of May." Says a religious weekly, "It is no exaggeration to say that through this $50,000 are saved every week to the families of working people in the city of N. Y. alone." Let the Christian people of N. Y. see that they do not fall behind in the good work.

3. Finally, the Christian's appeal should be made to God in prayer. He should depend more of all on divine grace to accomplish the reformation of men. If any had of possessing that grace, it is a fatal mistake. "Except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God."

WASHINGTON'S BIRTH DAY.—This day will be observed with becoming spirit in this city. The Newport Artillery, Col. Powell, Newport Light Infantry, Col. Tew, and Aquinade Rifles, Capt. Delaney, will parade, forming on Washington Square at half-past 10 o'clock, and march through the principal streets. We understand there will be a dress parade in the afternoon, and a Ball by the Artillery Company in the evening; also a Promenade Concert from eight to ten. Subscribers, we understand, will procure their tickets before their arrival at the Academy of Music, as none will be furnished at the door.

THEFT.—The chap who stole an oar from our reporter's boat lying at Finch, Engle & Co's Wharf yesterday, although he took the best of three, has his thanks that he did not take the remaining oars and the boat with them. Perhaps this is the same chap who stole about twenty fathoms of hawser from a vessel in that locality a few nights since, in which case we would advise him to pursue his explorations for old junk in a more legitimate manner, or at least in another quarter as his shallop is getting pretty well known around the wharves up-town.

DETENTION OF STEAMERS.—The weather on Long Island Sound has been very severe for the past forty-eight hours. The Empire State which left here Tuesday night, did not arrive in New York until a late hour yesterday morning, and was obliged to make a harbor in Gow Bay on her return, so that she did not arrive here until about 8 o'clock this morning.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. Edward W. Lawton is making further improvements in his estate 128 Thames Street. He will put a new front on the building, and we understand, a French roof, greatly improving its general appearance.

OBSEQUES OF PROF. BACHZ.—The remains of Professor, A. D. Bachz were taken from this city by steamer Empire State which arrived at N. York about two hours behind time. The body reached the City Hall about eleven o'clock yesterday morning, where it was awaited by a committee of the Chamber of Commerce and a number of distinguished individuals. Flags all over the city were displayed at half-mast and the entrance of the Governor's room in the City Hall, was appropriately draped in mourning.

The dead Professor's body was encased in a beautiful rosewood casket, lined with zinc. The inscription on the plate was as follows:

Prof. Alexander Dallas Bachz, LL. D., Superintendent of the Civil Survey, Born July 19, 1806, Died Feb. 17, 1867, in his 61st year.

The remains were to leave at five o'clock, accompanied by Mayor Hoffman, many of the City officials and a large committee of naval, military and scientific gentlemen.

KILLED.—The Leavenworth Times contains a list of those killed by Indians in the massacre at Fort Phil. Kearney. Among them is the name of John McCarthy, artificer, Co. 3. 24. U. S. Cavalry, formerly of this city. Two other men from Newport, Edward Mollugh and John Reardon, were in the regiment, but their names are not in the list of killed.

THE NATIONAL FIRE INSURANCE BOARD.—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Board of Fire Underwriters in New York Tuesday, a report was presented on the subject of local boards, which stated that upwards of two hundred and twenty such organizations had been formed in various parts of the country, all of which, with few exceptions, were working harmoniously and with very excellent results. A sub-committee sent out by the Executive Committee have done a vast amount of work in revising and establishing rates of insurance, and an enlargement of the powers of this committee is advocated.

The chairman of the committee called attention to the danger arising from petroleum oil of an indifferent quality, and the perilous risks of companies who insured such property. A member suggested that no risks be taken on petroleum. A sub-committee on over-insurance made a report which dwelt on the great extent to which over-insurance has increased of late years, which threatens to sweep away not only the incomes of companies, but their capitals also, and recommended to the National Board the adoption of the three-fourths rule, that proper relations may be restored between the insurer and insured, so that the latter may have a substantial interest in the safety of insured property.

ANOTHER REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER GONE.—Samuel Downing, the last but two of the soldiers of the war of Independence, died Monday, at Edinborough, Saratoga County, New York. The event was announced from the Speaker's desk at Washington Tuesday. He was in his 106th or 107th year. Data proving the latter to be his age was recently procured and published, although the old gentleman said he was born near Exeter, N. H., Nov. 30, 1761. At the age of 16 years he was enlisted in the army, and was sent with others to guard baggage trains to Springfield, Mass. From there he went to New Jersey, and thence returned to West Point. Thence he came to Saratoga, where he went through the campaign that resulted in the surrender of Burgoyne. After Burgoyne's surrender he went to Schoenectady and Johnstown passing his second winter in the army at the latter place. In the spring he went South, to Peekskill, and was in the engagement at Pine Bridge. The third winter was spent at Newburgh, and thence received his discharge when peace was declared. He returned to New Hampshire and married, and in the spring of 1794 moved with his wife to the place where he died. When the first Pension Law was passed, March 18, 1815, to made application and received a pension, his papers having been issued and bearing the autograph of John O. Calhoun, as Secretary of War.

THE COLUMBIAN PRIZE DECREE.—Mr. Seaward has addressed to Gen. Sulgar, minister of the United States of Columbia at Washington, a protest against the decree of the President of Columbia in reference to the jurisdiction of the Columbian authorities over prizes captured and brought into Columbian ports by cruisers of the allied republics of the Pacific in the war with Spain, declaring the decree in contravention of the law of nations, and giving notice that should any United States vessel be captured, proceedings under it will be held null and void as against the United States.

THE EXEMPTION OF MARRIED MEN DISCONTINUED.—By command of General Grant a circular has been issued directing that hereafter none but unmarried men shall be enlisted into the army for any arm of the service. This does not apply to the Veteran Reserve Corps or musicians.

XXXIXTH CONGRESS—Second Session, Washington, Feb. 20.

In the Senate, the ratification of the amendment to the Constitution by Pennsylvania was announced. The bill to establish a park in the District of Columbia was passed. The bill for the better government of the Southern States, as amended by the House, was received. A prolonged debate ensued, and at a quarter before eleven the House amendments were concurred in and the bill was passed by yeas 25, nays 7.

HOUSE.—The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill to provide a more efficient government for the rebel States.

Mr. Blaine withdrew his motion to recede from the disagreement in the Senate's amendments, and moved the previous question on Mr. Wilson's (of Iowa) motion to concur with the proviso reported last night. Rejected, 73 to 70.

Mr. Shellabarger then moved an amendment to the amendment as a new section.

That until the people of rebel States shall by law be admitted to representation in Congress any civil Government that may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and shall be in all respects subject to the permanent authority of the United States, at any time to abolish, modify, control and supersede the same, and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote under the provisions of this act, and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the 3d article of the Constitutional Amendment. Adopted—98 to 70.

Mr. Wilson's amendment as thus amended was agreed to—yeas 123, nays 46—a strict party vote.

At this amendment to the Senate's amendment was agreed to, the bill was returned to the Senate at 1.30 P. M.

SERRAT'S COMEL—His Identity Beyond Dispute.

Washington, Feb. 20. It is understood that ex-Governor Thomas H. Ford and Col. Henkle have been retained as counsel in the case of John H. Serratt, on the charge of murder. The prisoner has heretofore repeatedly denied that he was Serratt, but yesterday when he was about to be delivered into the hands of the U. S. Marshal the following colloquy occurred:

Marshal.—"Is your name John H. Serratt?" Prisoner.—"It is, sir." Marshal.—"Then, sir, I arrest you by virtue of a Bench warrant issued to me by the Criminal Court of the District of Columbia."

FROM WASHINGTON. Washington, Feb. 20, 1867.

The crew of the Serratt were this morning transferred to the Marblehead to be taken to Norfolk, where they will be kept in quarantine until after the trial of Serratt.

Serratt's inquiry of the Warden of the jail after his arrest and several Washington friends. He asked to be permitted to smoke, a permission which he received, and he is also to be allowed to walk in the corridor an hour each morning and afternoon.

GROSS OUTRAGE IN NORTH CAROLINA.

New York, Feb. 20. A man named Massey was attacked by a gang of ex-robbers under the leadership of a Sheriff named Davis, at Waverlyville, N. C., recently. He was fired upon forty times, and returning the fire injured a man named Underwood. He then escaped, but the Sheriff says he will call out the county to take him. Mr. Massey was engaged during the war in passing recruits through the lines to the Union army, and stands indicted for that offence. This was the cause of the attack.

THE PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS.

Washington, D. C., Wednesday, Feb. 20. There is no truth whatever in the published report that the President is in favor of a compromise with Congress. His opinions, as previously expressed, are fully maintained.

LEA & PERRINS' CELEBRATED WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE.

PRONOUNCED BY CONNOISSEURS TO BE THE ONLY GOOD SAUCE. AND APPLICABLE TO EVERY VARIETY OF DISH.

EXTRACT OF LEXTRA FROM A MEDICAL GENTLEMAN AT MADRAS, to his Brother at Worcester, Mass., 1861. "LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE is highly recommended in India, and is, in my opinion, the most palatable as well as the most wholesome Sauce that is made."

The success of this most delicious and unrivaled condiment having caused many unprincipled dealers to apply the name to Spurious Compositions, the Proprietors respectfully and earnestly request that the names of Lea & Perrins are upon the WRAPPER, LABEL, STOPPER and BOTTLE. GOODS LOANED

On Weekly or Monthly Payments.

THE SYSTEM OF FURNISHING GOODS upon Weekly or Monthly Payments is peculiar to my establishment. It is favorable to persons of limited means who wish to commence housekeeping or replace their dwellings, but who have not enough ready money to do it, and still support their families. The system has worked so safely that it is in constant practice at my Establishment on Broad Street.

The System Contemplates Two Things. FIRST.—The accumulation of persons having a stated limited income, and also those who desire to use their money and pay instalments from their earnings. They can have the use of any property until weekly or monthly payments make it their own.

SECOND.—The perfect security of myself against loss. The goods are loaned by me and located. The face of the goods being in myself, I can call them at any moment. This ensures promptness of payment according to the terms of agreement for their use until paid for, when they become the property of the user, by a regular bill of sale. The contract is drawn legally, and its violation by the removal of the goods or their attempted sale, would subject the person doing it to heavy penalties. These two features secure to me safety, and to my customers cheapness of price. They do not have to pay for losses incurred through others. Besides the system secures a good class of customers, and is enabled to benefit the worthy whose means are limited, and not to injure myself, or interfere with other transactions.

Know Thy Destiny.

Madame E. P. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant, and Psychometrist, who has established the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N. Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of seeing and insight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychometron, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can attest. She will send when desired a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that this picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamp, and envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. Reparator Capilli.

Throw away your false tresses, your wigs, your wig-destructive, of comfort, and not worth a fig.

Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair, and rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the hair to grow upon the smoothest face in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It is certainly difficult, as plants of the different varieties advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless it truly cures you. To our representations. If your hair does not grow, send me one dollar and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, proving entire satisfaction not given. Wonderful but True.

MADAME REMINGTON, the world-renowned Astrologist and Somnambulist Clairvoyant, while in a clairvoyant state, delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychometron, guarantees to produce a perfect and life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, with date of marriage, occupation, leading traits of character, &c. This is an imposition, as testimonials will not counteract an assert. By stating place of birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, and enclosing fifty cents, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture by return mail, together with desired information.

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country house, after a few months in the City, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, ruddy, flushed face, she had a soft rosy complexion of almost ivory smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen.

Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she related to them that she used the Cressian system, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its means Lady or Gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from the skin, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as Nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. ASTROLOGY.

The World Astonished.

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

MADAME H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She reveals to you the future, who, from dearest friends, catastrophes, cruelties in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become distressed. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue, and what you will be most successful, causes absent marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the names, likenesses and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers reveals the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. She also shows you the predominance in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fall not to consult the greatest Astrologist of the earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may thereafter have a favorable opportunity. Consultation free, with license and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal success and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person.
